“I Ain’t Down Yet”
From The Unsinkable Molly Brown by Meredith Wilson

I'm going to learn to read and write,
I'm going to see what there is to see,
    So if you go from nowhere
    On the road to somewhere
    And you meet anyone
    You know it's me.

You'll see me carried shoulder high,
By famous people I've never met,
    But till I leave the rear,
    It's from the rear you'll hear,
    "I ain't down yet."
    To show that you know,
You got to show you know you know!

    I'm going to move
    From place to place
    To find a house
    With a golden stair
    And if that house is red
    And has a big brass bed
    I'm living there.

You'll see me carried shoulder high,
By famous people I've never met,
    But till I leave the rear,
    It's from the rear you'll hear,
    "I ain't down yet."
